

Elektra Website Style Guide

Brand Name: Elektra

Purpose: Elektra is a futuristic design and technology brand that bridges the natural and digital worlds. The website communicates innovation, balance, and creativity through clean layouts, bold typography, and glowing accents.

Core Message:

To inspire creators, gamers, and designers through technology that feels alive, intuitive, electric, and elegant.

Audience

Type	Description	Needs
Primary: Digital Creators	Artists, designers, and gamers who value aesthetics and innovation.	Inspiration, product info, and brand immersion.
Secondary: Collaborators & Brands	Partner designers, tech firms, and engineers.	Partnership access, project submissions, brand identity.

Tone: visionary, confident, minimal, and futuristic.

Grid System

Grid: 10-column layout

Color Palette

Role	Color	Description
Primary	Electric Blue	Represents energy and technology
Secondary	Deep Violet	Adds creativity and depth

Accent	Neon Magenta		Highlight elements, glowing accents
Background	Matte Black		Futuristic and neutral foundation
Text	White / Light Gray		Readability and contrast

Typography

Logo type- Neuropol Nova

Main type- Calibri Bold

Secondary type- Calibri regular

Logo

Spacing System

8px spacing rule:

Small padding: 8px

Standard spacing: 16px

Section padding: 64px+

Elements & Asset Rules

Buttons

Type	Fill	Border	Text Color
Primary	Electric Blue (#00BFFF)	None	White
Sec	Transparent	White 1px	White

Hover State: glow outer edge (#6B2EFF soft blur)

Icons

Style: Minimal line icons

Color: White or Electric Blue

Size: 24–40px depending on context

Forms

Rounded input boxes

Border color: #CFCFCF (hover → #00BFFF glow)

Button: Electric Blue background

Imagery

Soft lighting

High contrast but balanced tones

Use glows, gradients, and motion blur to suggest energy

Style Guide Notes

The Elektra visual system is designed to evoke energy and calm at once. Clean grids, glowing accents, and balanced color usage guide the user through a futuristic, immersive experience. Consistency across pages ensures strong brand recognition while leaving room for creative storytelling.